Dissatisfied with Schedule.

The present outlook is that the directors of the Eastern Connecticut league will reconsider their action in adopting a schedule at the meeting in Danielson Sunday. Since the mana-gers and players have had a more leisurely opportunity to review the ar-rangement of games they have made some discoveries that are not altogeth-er pleasing. Manager J. B. Want Putnam Schedule Adonted.

Want Putnam Schedule Adopted. Want Putnam Schedule Adopted.

Because of the dissatisfaction expressed along the circuit with the schedule adopted by the Eastern Connecticut league, Putnam people interested in the game hope to see the schedule offered by the local management selected as a better arrangement. This schedule, turned down at the meeting in Danielson Sunday, would give Putnam, Wauregan and North Grosvenordale a chance to play holiday games at Wildwood park, and a consequent chance to swell their treasuries. The Putnam schedule also has other good points.
